Wildfowling Permits - Questions and Answers

Do I need a permit to wildfowl on Wigtown Bay LNR?

Yes.

These will be issued by the Dumfries and Galloway Council under the LNR Byelaws and can be withdrawn at any time.

Landowners seasons are allocated to landowners and their representatives.

The members of the Wigtown Bay and Creetown Wildfowling Clubs may receive a seasonal permit through block permit systems.

The 10 remaining seasonal permits can be obtained if you live within the DG8 and DG9 post code areas for more than 8 months of the year.

This permit will allow you to shoot Monday to Saturday throughout the season from dawn until noon and 3pm until dusk.

Seasonal permit holders will be required to attend a Voluntary Wildfowling Warden's course and to carry out voluntary wardening duties on request.

What will my permit cost? - £15 for seasonal permits apart from landowner permits which are free. Payments by cheque payable to 'Machars Action' or by BACS Account No: 06000960 Sort Code: 80-19-33

Do I need insurance?

Yes - All permit holders must have third party legal cover of at least £5 million. Membership of most sporting organisations or wildfowling clubs will provide this.

What if I am not going to use my permit?

Who's going to check if I have a permit or not?
